

CoaLogix a Finalist for the Coveted 2010 Platts Global Energy 'Rising Star Award'

Charlotte, N.C., October 15, 2010 - CoaLogix Inc. announced today that they have been selected as a finalist for the Rising Star in the 2010 Platts Global Energy Awards. CoaLogix provides innovative solutions for clean energy production, with a focus specifically on cost-effective emissions control solutions for the coal and gas fired power generation industry.

Established in 1999 and often referred to as the "Oscars of Energy," the Platts Global Energy Awards recognize innovation, leadership, and superior performance in more than a dozen categories spanning the entire energy industry. The Rising Star Award recognizes businesses that have used these qualities to establish themselves as equals to- or even more successful than- leading players in the energy industry field or discipline. Judges decide the winner based on the company's strategic vision, growth, innovation, scope, peer recognition and operational excellence.

"Confirmation as a finalist three years in a row for this prestigious award is a tribute to CoaLogix's loyal customers, dedicated employees and our investors," said Bill McMahon, CEO of CoaLogix. "To be awarded the 'Rising Star Award' would reinforce our commitment to innovative growth which was initially recognized with our receipt of 'Commercial Technology of the Year Award' in 2008".

Winners will be announced at the 12th Annual Awards Celebration at Cipriani Wall Street on December 2, 2010.

About CoaLogix

CoaLogix Inc. is focused on providing innovative services to coal-fired generating facilities to reduce their environmental footprint through technology, optimization and efficiency improvements.
